Dear Parents,

This week, we've been focusing on the value of synergy, teaching our children the importance of teamwork, sharing ideas, working together as a team and understanding that we achieve our best when we work collectively. We have encouraged them to be cooperative and supportive of one another.

We have relentlessly continued to instill patriotism and fostering a deeper understanding of our nation's history and values. We believe that it is crucial for our children's growth as responsible citizens.

Additionally, preparations for our upcoming musical concert are in full swing and our children are practicing hard. We can't wait to showcase their talents.

Your unwavering support in nurturing our children is greatly appreciated. Have a wonderful weekend.
